I hear you sigh,
When you're close to me,
Forgetting time endlessly,
And darkness falls,
As you close your eyes,
The world still turns,
And I realise...

When I lay beside you,
Something deep inside,
Brings each and every waking moment,
A love for you you know I just can't hide...

CHORUS

Give a little love,
Just a little love,
You can change my world with just a little love,
Give a little love,
Just a little love,
We can change our world with just a little love...

If you believe in love,
Like I want you too,
Then time will tell how it can true...

When I lay beside you,
Something deep inside,
Brings each and every waking moment,
A love for you you know I just can hide...

CHORUS

So give a little love,
Just a little love,
You can change my world with just a little love,
Give a little love,
Just a little love,
We can change our world with just a little love...

So give a little love,
Just a little love,

We can change our world...
With just a little love.
