Imagine...

It's a crazy situation
Pick up the thouts and use imagination,
The fast lane!
Of the melt-down zone,
Too many lies, too many overtones are spoken!
And the rules never broken!
I used to please and believe to achieve,
But now the past is a well-closed book,
You've seen one side...take a second look!

CHORUS

Jump up! If you can!
The whole world's livin' in a masterplan!
Jump up! If you can!
Whoa whoa whoa!
Jump up! If you can!
The whole world's livin' in a masterplan!
Jump up! If you can!
Whoa whoa whoa!

Frustration...

And a lack of concentration,
Block out the thoughts of contemplation!
In a wicked way a smooth reply,
In other words it's a short goodbye!
Our chapter!
That's now been told, I used to cry my soul's been sold!
Now the past is a well closed book, you've seen one side...
...come on! Take a second look...
