Inner wounds will always bleed
Well hidden from your eyes
I cared for you goodhearted
Heartrending your last words

Bring my heart to the place it's longing for
Show me the way to die as easy as I can

These stings hurt
You rammed into my heart
Your wings are broken
You're no angel anymore

After a while
I still don't know
What could you have missed?
You had my love

Bring my heart to the place it's longing for
Show me the way to die as easy as I can

These stings hurt
You rammed into my heart
Your wings are broken
You're no angel anymore
These stings hurt
Wings are broken

When the dust has settled down

You walk away - don't turn your head

These stings hurt
You rammed into my heart
Your wings are broken
