Joy was her name
A life un-wed
Thirty years old
Never danced a step

She would have left these red hills far behind
If not for her condition
Would have left these red hills long ago
If not for my condition

Pitiful Joy
She looked away
Into a hollow sky
Came face to face

With her own innocence surrounding her
Until it never was a question
Innocence so suffocating
Now she cannot move, no question

No hope for Joy
No hope or faith
She wanted to go blind
Wanted hope to stay

I've been believing in nothing since I was born
It never was a question
No
