He's here, he's there,
He's everywhere
And when you need him he'll be around,
Droopy, the master detective hound.

You can run, but you can't hide
'Cause he'll be right there at your side,
Climb the mountain, cross the sea,
Droopy's keeping you company.

You can holler, you can even hammer,
But if you break the rules,
They'll put you in the slammer.
Is that the trouble if you break the law?
Droopy will dripplle off at the door,

He's here, he's there,
He's everywhere
And when you need him he'll be around,
Droopy, the master detective hound.
Droopy, the master detective hound.
