These issues can't be solved by swinging axes, the chopping block is where you lay your head.
The dreams you have are lacking happy endings, the innocent and guilty wind up dead.
Imprisoned in my mind, there's no way out I'm killing time.
Breathe in and sigh, you can't escape my nightmare.
You brought this on yourself.
Tonight she's sleeping in my shadow, her breath
hangs in the cold night air.
Tonight she's dreaming in my shadow, tear back the
covers, I'm not there.
Anger and rage plague my existence, try and stare me
down I'll smash your face.
How dare you fucking question my existence, your whole life will be lost without a trace.
Let's go, now breathe.
Tonight she's sleeping in my shadow, her breath
hangs in the cold night air.
Tonight she's dreaming in my shadow, tear back the
covers, I'm not there.
Let's go, survive.
