[Hook]

Blue waters, blue skies
Life goes, right by
Don't forget the time when life was rain
Don't forget the time when we had no shame
Blue waters, blue skies
Life goes, right by ya
Don't forget the time when we rode the rain
Don't forget the time that we beat the pain

[Verse 1]

Blue waters, blue skies
Life goes right by ya
If you let it it'll push ya, it'll try ya
No matter how you built your tire
Life on the wire, feet to the fire
No matter how high you climb you can get higher
Drop the ego, drop the fame
Stop pointin' the finger at who's to blame
Just chalk it up - as part of the game
Don't cry in the rain yo dance in the rain
No matter how high you get you still feel pain
No matter how hard you sniff to numb yo brain
Life goes on and life gets longer
But it more goes by you'll get stronger
Days get shorter nights get longer
You could see my face in blue waters

[Hook]

Blue waters, blue skies
Life goes right by
Don't forget the time when life was rain
Don't forget the time when we had no shame
Blue waters, blue skies
Life goes, right by
Don't forget the time when we rode the rain
Don't forget the time that we beat the pain

[Verse 2]

Blue waters, blue skies
Life goes right by
If you let it it'll slide right by

No matter how low you get you can get higher
Pushin' the wire, embracin' the fire
No matter what comes in life you can't stop trying'
I was told if you reach you can touch the stars
The road might be ruff and the distance far
So, am I perfect? Baby not by far
Any man of power still lickin' they scars
To live and die in LA yo it must be hard
I got my foot to the floor and I still want more
Even though it's custom built with my name on the door
I don't deal with the bulls*%t I stay on the go
On the darkest of nights you can see my glow
In blue waters, blue skies

[Hook]

Blue waters, blue skies
Life goes right by
Don't forget the time when life was rain
Don't forget the time when we had no shame
Blue waters, blue skies
Life goes, right by ya
Don't forget the time when we rode the rain
Don't forget the time that we beat the pain

[Verse 3]

Blue waters, blue skies
Life goes right by
Don't forget you could ride the rain yo
Don't forget you could beat the pain yo
Blue waters, blue skies
Even though you low now, ma', you could fly
It's alright to cry as long as your eyes dry
No need to to lie, as time goes by
Time to get away yo, I gotta see change
Gotta broaden my view and open up the range
Life's callin', my time for ballin'
I'm goin' all in got no time for fallin'
I'm uh see the world, I'm glad I left the game
Simple's alright with me yo f*%k the fame
Gotta drive your own road
Play your own game
If you can't play the field, you gotta split lanes

[Hook]

Blue waters, blue skies
Life goes right by
Don't forget the time when life was rain
Don't forget the time when we had no shame
Blue Waters, Blue Skies
Life goes, right by ya
Don't forget the time when we rode the rain

Don't forget the time that we beat the pain

Blue waters, blue skies

Life goes right by

Don't forget the time when life was rain

Don't forget the time when we had no shame

Don't forget the time when we rode the rain

Don't forget the time that we beat the pain
