And he points to his man there by the door
and asks to use his phone to make a call.
He's putting in the numbers but he stalls... and on our end it goes it goes just so -

" I need to speak to Sammy put her on"
"I won't take no for an answer dunno the fuck this is man please just ask her!"

"All my love to give...heartbreaking all my love is so so"

We'd like to leave
but he's forgotten where he lives.
So we drink longer and longer
I think if he spoke to Sammy he'd remember.

Set me on fire.
No reflection on me
reflection on you.
Cool Cool.
