Out of time and blue with further ado
This all here seems to remind me of something new
Out of the sky with one blink of an eye
We both jumped without knowing who was high
Now I don't know which way to go
But just as long as it's you who says so

CHORUS

She said, it's here for me and it's there for you There's just a lot more now to deal with on this table for two
You dropped my hand, forgot my name, but no one here is left to blame
Here for me and it's there for you

Say what you mean and leave all your worried inside
All I know is that you're low
Darlin, it's me to leave behind
Misery loves company and likewise I'm the same
I just sit and watch all day but I never play the game
Tell me, am I gonna win?
And tell me, will I lose?
Then tell me what's right and wrong, and which do I choose?

CHORUS

I'll go
I already know
But just as long as it's you, who says so

Out of time and blue with further ado
Nothing is wrong with here, there or gone
Just take me with you
