Time called, asking, where you been?
And if you should fall, or take another on the chin
It's like trying to trust the government
Or lie to you best friend

CHORUS

Your loss is my loss, my loss is yours
In the end, we both are free
Your goes, then mine does
Mine does, yours goes
It's like kid tugging on my sleeve
I can't say no

So it's my fault, go ahead and say it again
But it's not my ball to drop or run with Just think of where we're coming from
In the place of where I've been

CHORUS

Didn't think about the punishment, didn't think it was a sin
Did you think about the punishment
When you let somebody new in?
