When the end is near
New beginnings appear
Just like the old saying goes
It's a matter of course
With every closing door
Open windows all brand new
But which to choose?

CHORUS

It'll never end, it'll never end
And it's up to us to see
Am I ready yet for a better way
And all the possibilities?

It's another year and I'm still here
I stopped trying to figure that one out
I put my dream right in front of me
And there's nothing left to doubt
Or to live without

CHORUS

It'll never end, it'll never end
And it's up to me to see
Am I ready yet, am I listening
To all the possibilities?
