Holy Holy Holy
is the Lord Almighty
But I am so unworthy
Heavy-weighted down

Full of peace and justice
Glorious and righteous
But I just lie here helpless
Heavy-weighted down

Could you cut free
This cancer in me?
'Cause it's choking my heart
And weighing me down

We tore up this temple
Stripped the gold and silver
Sat down front and center
Heavy-weighted down

Now I see your brightness
I am just a likeness
Deaf and dumb and sightless
Heavy weighted down

Could you cut free
This cancer in me?
'Cause it's choking my heart
And weighing me down

On your shoulders Savior
I heap all my failure
Will you be my shelter
When judgment's coming down?

Saved through Jesus' mercy
He who suffered for me
Is loaded up with glory
Heavy-weighted down
