Let's get up and move on, from the place we used to call home
It's safe to say that when I need it most, everyone just leaves me alone
I need a second to run away, I know there's no time to stay In the town that did not one thing for me all it did was stand in my way

Just hold on so tightly, and never let go You'll come to see it's great to be the one has grown Just keep your mind open with all anger aside Release your fear you're almost here, don't run or don't hide Forget your past
This was meant to last

I've still got a lot to learn, I know, I haven't seen it all yet I'm getting out of this town because only staying here is the safest bet
I need to get away, I need to find a place In the end it's what I've wanted, and there's nothing that you can take (from me)

Say anything you want Do whatever you need
I don't care what you say I'm only in this for me.

I need to keep my head held high; I will try not to fall It's tough to keep moving forward, but it's my life after all
