Sleep tonight; meditate while we're all crying, over you (A—2)

When there's caution in the air, will you throw it to the wind? (A—2)

(chorus 1)

With that said you're clear for takeoff,
Let go you're clear for takeoff Though endless memories remain when you're not here
Let go you're clear for takeoff,
with that said you're clear for takeoff
And all the clouds that were left here, are for you to ride

Dream tonight, medicate while we're all crying, over you (A—2)

When there's caution in the air, will you throw it to the wind?

When you're floating through the air, to your castles in the wind

(chorus 2)

With that said you're clear for takeoff,
Let go you're clear for takeoff
Spread your wings when there's nothing left And at the moment you took to flight, left all the tears that I've wasted.
Release your heart of a lifetime filled with the weight of a thousand eyes

And all you saw,
All you saw,
All you were,
Don't let me hold you down...

With that said you're clear for takeoff,
I'll cry though a simple song for you
With that said you're clear for takeoff
Takeoffâ€¦

(and here comes our favorite part :D)
Would you wait on the other side? That's all I'd ask of you
Would you wait on the other side? That's all I'd ask of you Would you wait on the other side? Wait on the other side?
That's all I'd ask of youâ€¦
