The station waits in every way for station waves
For anyone who's anyone to hear his waves
At every turn and every wake his station breaks
His station waits, his station waits, his station waits
Toss the words right out, deeper still within my mouth
Seek me out, seek me out
Toss the words right out, deeper still within my mouth
Seek me out, seek me out
We will never rest in peace, ???, driven by a darker means
Sure to end in loss, sure to end in lose
Your worthless station you're breaking yourself
Toss the words right out, deeper still within my mouth
Seek me out, seek me out
Toss the words right out, deeper still within my mouth
Seek me out, seek me out
Living on through ever after, to never hold a candle,
never see my face
Living on through ever after, to never hold a candle,
never see my face
