What is it you're still afraid of? Allow your wings to settle down
You built your nest upon the fire, so you kneel and pray for rain
To alleviate the pain, to alleviate the pain, alleviate the pain
You've got a lesson to learn, you've got a lesson to learn
All eyes on me, don't read between the lines, I'm buried in the fold
All eyes on me, don't read between the lines, I'm
buried in the fold
What is it you're still afraid of? Allow your mind to settle down
You put your nest upon the fire, so you kneel and pray for rain, alleviate the pain You've got a lesson to learn, you've got a lesson to
learn
buried in the fold
All eyes on me, don't read between the lines, I'm
buried in the fold
Juice the wires, medication, assassinate all motivation Leaving us to reason with ourselves and the world
All eyes on me, don't read between the lines, I'm
buried in the fold
You've got a lesson to learn, lesson to learn Lesson to learn, lesson to learn
