Verse 1

You're not here,
There's no shadow, no smell,
There's no you anymore.
And I fear,
That it's all been in vain,
All that's left is the pain.
And my heart breaks in two,
How I wish you were here,
I admit that I'm missing you.
Lock the door,
Wanna be all alone,
With the memories of you.
And I know,
That it is much too soon,
To expect so much more.
Do you care how I feel?
Will the wound ever heal?
Just a dream that won't come true.
And I love you (I love you)
And I miss you (I miss you)
This much is true (And I'll say a prayer too)
And I love you (I love you)
And I miss you (I miss you)
This much is true,
And I'll surely think of you,
Yes I'll surely think of you.

Verse 2 (Spanish)

Y yo se,
Que es muy tarde para,
Repentirme de lo que fue.
Las mentiras,
Porque nunca acepte,
Como yo me senti.
Se me fue tu amor,
Y ahora aqui estoy.
Ahogandome en soledad.

Y te quiero (I love you)
Y te extraño (I miss you)

Y es verdad (And I'll say a prayer too)
Y te quiero (I love you)
Y te extraño (I miss you)
Y es verdad,
Siempre pensare en ti,
Yes I'll surely think of you.

Bridge
If there's hope, let me know.
If there's love come on show me my place in your heart.
If it's over alright,
If it's not, hold me tight
And just promise we'll never part.

Cause I love you, and I miss you,
Ohyeah you gotta tell me, Oh what is true.
Oh baby I miss you.
