Take that fire from your head and see my eyes take this feeling I have need for self-sacrifice

Take this guilt off my chest and I will have learned take this bridge from my past that I've already burned

And I see that you know me
And I see that you are not impressed
And I see that I am not forgiven
And I see that I have not been given rest

Take this life from my hands and give it peace Take this picture from my mind and give it release

I was not in my head
And I was not alive
I am down on my knees and I've already died

And I see that you know me
And I see that you are not impressed
And I see that I am not forgiven
And I see that I have not been
given rest
