

Allison Crowe "Northern Lights"

Visit "Northern Lights" on MotoLyrics.com

The Northern Lights took me off guard
Knocked me over and lifted me up
And through the shadow of a meteor
I saw your face

And yes I stood on the other side of the world
But I took the Northern Lights home to you

I fall into habits that I've carried
So many years and when I fall
I seem to pick them up
And I don't know when or where
But this isn't me, this visionary
That can barely see

And yes I stood on the other side of the world
But I took the Northern lights home to you

So much water floods my face

I am choking on words that I finally
Have the courage to say
At the wrong time in the wrong place
And there's no one here to hear me
I just scream into an empty room

And yes I stood on the other side of the world
But I took the Northern Lights home to you

Everything falls and I will
Be the last one standing yes
I will hold fast
Because everything here begins again

Yes I stood on the other side of the world
And took the Northern Lights home to you

And took the Northern Lights home to you

Visit Allison Crowe page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

