All life moves closer to death

Hold on to just one last breath

We don't know what time holds

Do you fear what's out there

We cling to the things of this earth

Trace your steps back to your birth

We don't know what time holds

We can't face this one fate

So I pray

One more day

I feel the pain, hold on to me in the night

I feel alive, don't let it end, give me life

Does time move in a straight line

I'll stand still or lag behind

Count the days till your fate

Hold on to what kills you

I'll awake

One more day

I feel the pain, hold on to me in the night

I feel alive, don't let it end, give me life

I can never walk away, I'm caught here forever

You can never follow me expecting to fly
All I've ever dreamed about is leaving forever
I am like the serpent who tries to devour itself
I feel the pain, hold on to me in the night
I feel alive, don't let it end, give me life
I feel the pain, hold on to me in the night
I feel alive, don't let it end, give me life
I can never walk away, I'm caught here forever
You can never follow me expecting to fly
All I've ever dreamed about is leaving forever
I am like the serpent who tries to devour itself
Itself...
