I heard a whisper in the tunnels today, oh yeah they were coming for my neighbor and they took him away, oh yeah

he was preaching revolution when he talked in his sleep, oh yeah

and his mother told security and sold him out cheap, oh yeah

what a perfect place

this perfect place

everywhere you look you can see his face

it's such a comfort when he knows what you think, oh yeah

it's a little like santa claus faded to pink, oh yeah we got the cutest little cameras hanging everywhere,

oh yeah

after a while you forget they are there, oh yeah
