"To Live Forever"

in a quiet little nowhere town way out deep in the woods sits a little lonely factory makin' household goods with a little nothing river flowin' by their back door you won't find any fishin' there ain't no fish in there no more and the sign said
"don't drink the water
don't wade in the pool
no, don't come here at all"
and the people said
"you drank the water?
there's nothing we can do there's no one we can call"
now I guess i'm gonna live forever find myself a cave and hide me away yes i'm gonna live forever find myself a cave and hide me away when I got up out of bed today my room was glowing pink I could see into the future I could hear what the people think I saw visions in my head I saw things I should not see I saw rows and rows of pleading hands reaching up to me

and the sign said
and the people said
"you drank the water?
now I guess i'm gonna live forever
(we guess you're gonna live forever find yourself a cave and hide you away)
don't drink the water (danger... you shall live forever
