I was a ghost, before, you came.
And I was a slave, but then, I changed.
And I will take, the good, and bad.
For many, I am a slave, to this again.
So leave me alone, before, the strain
Of listening to me becomes more than you can bare.
But maybe this time, we will, be fine,
Or else tommorow, will be lost.

I feel you calling me when I'm alone,
I feel you calling me it's keeping me up,
I wanna be with you, now.

I feel you calling me when I'm alone,
I feel you calling me it's keeping me up,
I wanna be with you, now.

There was a force, I swear, I thought it'd take me out
And there was a chance, that we, could go,
So far as I look in your eyes
I know, you say, no war no war no more,
And that is the fight, in this life.

I feel you calling me when I'm alone
I feel you calling me it's keeping me up
I wanna be with you now.

I feel you calling me when I'm alone,
Hot nights and Moonlight and it's keepin me up!
I gotta be with you now

Tell me a way, till then, to find, my braces and grades
Before we explode.

And maybe this time we will be fine
And our tommorow won't be lost.
