Sucking energy out of the soul
Leaving an abandoned shell
In which life grew
In which I once flourished

Drain your inner will to love

And it's all forsaken
I still believe in what I had
Escaping deep down in myself
Dedicated to my demons

Prevailing
Can you take it

Born with a harmless innocence
Glazing at a golden future
Preparing that of gold
Which didn't come out as planned

Cut your strings from this world now

The overwhelming naDvete
Was soon to be choked on
And it's all torn fucking down
Now it's just a decomposed relic
