Well, let me tell you about what it feels like
To be scared of, of a woman
Always worry about she'll find out
I'm not her kind of a man

Listen to my warning, hear what I say
Don't be too concerned, it's okay to be afraid

(Oh, no)
Why do I need this for?
Why can't put it down?
(Oh, no)
Why do I need it for?
Fear bringing me down

There's a conspiracy in the powder room
They're going to the bathroom in pairs
To rap about why men don't communicate
No wonder, no man dares

Listen to my warning, hear what I say
Don't be too concerned, it's okay to be afraid

(Oh, no)
Why do I need this for?
Why can't put it down?
(Oh, no)
Why do I need this for?
Fear bringing me, fear bringing me down

Yeah man, she bob fling to foot and leave me feel soaked
I always think she's laughing but I love to think I'm no joke
She play with my emotions even though I'm no toy
All she does is act coy and I'm converted to a little boy

(Oh, no)
Afraid of the broken heart from the start
(Oh, no)
Don't start and we will apart till I depart
(Oh, no)

Play smart and listen to my worries hear what they say
(Oh, no)
Don't be too concerned 'cause it's okay to be afraid
(Oh, no)

(Oh, no)
Why do I need this for?
Why can't put it down?
(Oh, no)
Why do I need this for?
Fear bringing me down

(Oh, no)
Why do I need this for?
Why can't put it down?
(Oh, no)
Why do I need it for?
Fear bringing me, fear bringing me down

(Oh, no)
Why can't I put it down?
(Why do I need this for?)
Why do I need this for, man?
(Why do I need this for?)
Just bringing me down
(Fear bringing me down)

Yeah man, I really don't need this, man
(Fear bringing me down)
Just bringing me to fuck out
I'm out of here, later for you
