Too bad you're her boyfriend
We're friends and I like it that way
But I like, I like your girlfriend
Some things can't be restrained well,
All I can say is
Don't ever screw up

I like your girlfriend, I like your girl
I like your girlfriend, I like your girl
I like your girlfriend, I like your girl
I like your girlfriend, I like your girl
Friend, Girl, Friend

She looks great in that sweater
And her mother even looks better
Just means that she'll get hotter
When she gets old and older

I like your girlfriend, I like your girl
I like your girlfriend, I like your girl
I like your girlfriend, I like your girl
I like your girlfriend, I like your girl

Some things can't be determined
Some things can't be explained
Some things are best left un-spoken
Some things won't go away
I can't keep on being around her
I feel guilty when I'm with my friend, Yeah!
I like your girlfriend, I like your girl
Friend, Girl, Friend
