Verse 1:

Nothing's changed
The light still fades
As the memory shapes
That cross our fates

Refrain:

Just like now
The doors are closed
For me to see your face

Chorus:

And nothing seems to be right
The crying is up tonight
Is freedom wrong to find?
But now you're back
Everything feels right

Verse 2:

Is your heart blind?
Do I need to stay?
Is the feeling gone?
It makes me fall apart

Refrain:

Just like now
The doors are closed
For me to see your face

Chorus:

And nothing seems to be right
The crying is up tonight
Is freedom wrong to find?
But now you're back
Everything feels right
