Keep on walking through each other
And all of the courseness has lost all of its flavour It used to make me strong but now I'm breaking under the pressure, and the weight of it.

CH:
Please let me be near you I want to feel alive There's nothing I can do to make you come back inside

Keep on walking through
each other
All of the courseness has lost all of its savor
It used to make me strong
the pressure, and the weight
of it.

You fade with it when you run from it
You fade from it when you run with it Prove yourself,
prove yourself
It's getting hot outside

Feeling too low to look through the keyhole In through a door way and up through the stairway open window, feel the breeze flow
That that thought and burn it up Watch the sparks fly upward, watch the sparks fly upward...
