Dancing in the shadows
A darkness lights your way
No one here can find you
A higher price to pay
A time and place for you to learn to love again
A destination you can find a hope
A hope that you once had

Look into my eyes
A chance you won't forget
A heart so full yet no room for regret
A dream you had since you were lost within your innocence
An innocence that took your hand
And wiped away your tears

A thought persist within your mind
You try to wash away
But nothing there can hold you back
Nothing makes you stay
A look beyond what words
Can say a breath that you can't feel
A comfort feeling deep inside you
Know that this is real
