Verse 1

You're always kicking off,
You're trying to bring me down,
You never let it go,
and always win the fight,
and all the guys say nothing's ever good enough for a high maintenance girl like you.

Verse 2

You tell me what to do,
What time I must come home,
And if I don't comply,
My stuff gets thrown outside,
And all the guys say nothing's ever good enough for a high maintenance girl like you.

Bridge

You give me that smile,
And I'm back under your spell again.
I ask myself why... do I,
get tangled in your web again?
But I do and...

Chorus

There she goes again,
Is this the thing that you call love?
Maybe I would wanna be free,
From the thing that you call love.
Girl just let me know,
Is this the thing that you call love?
Well I might wanna be free,
From the thing that you call love, ah yeah.

Nothing's ever good enough for a high
maintenance girl like you.

Verse 3

You moan when I'm at work,
But wanna spend my money,
You criticise my plans,
Girl I don't think it's funny,
And all the guys say nothing's ever good enough for a
high,
maintainance girl like you.

Verse 4

And I'm damned if I do,
I'm damned if I don't,
Could you make up your mind,
And get yourself some help,
Cos all the guys say nothing's ever good enough for a high maintainance girl like you.

Bridge

You give me that smile,
And I'm back under your spell again.
But girl I know why,
I get tangled in your web again?
Cos you... look so good and...

Chorus

There she goes again,
Is this the thing that you call love?
Maybe I will wanna be free,
From the thing that you call love.
Girl just let me know,
Is this the thing that you call love?
Well I might wanna be free,
From the thing that you call love, ah yeah.

Nothing's ever good enough for a high
maintainance girl like you.

Nothing's ever good enough for a high
maintainance girl like you!
