We wandered around and 'round
In circles underground
We swore we'd never go there
And I looked up and we're frozen
How did we ever get here?

It's hard to take
Left in the wake
And I'm fighting to survive

I pray we'll find a way
It may not be tomorrow
Sometimes revolution sits and waits
To save the day
Let's go back to living
Instead of always throwing love away

I never knew a silence fill a room
Oh, the way it does when you leave
And I never knew you wore
Such sweet perfume
But now I breathe you all around me

It's hard to take
Let in the wake
And I'm fighting to survive

I pray we'll find a way
May not be tomorrow
Sometimes revolution sits and waits
To save the day
Let's go back to living
Instead of always throwing love away

I pray, I pray, I pray
I pray, I pray, I pray
