I left this one off the shelf,
'Cause here they all go again.
He can't even think for himself now
And so they plugged him in.

You're out of line.
You had to hate her.
Good work agitator.

You will not receive me
And now I'm your worst enemy,
'Cause everything you said to them about me
Was a lie.

Wait you've gone too far.
No one respects you anymore.
Nothing you can say now
Can bring them through that door.

You all are the same, so bring on the pain.
There's nothing left here anymore.

You push, you pull.
She slips out of your hand.
You watch her fly away,
And there's nothing that you can do.
You fight, you pray,
But there is nowhere to go;
We're stronger than you know!
