(opening)

Ohh, yeah (Yeah)
Na na na no no no
Noo

(first verse)

I know the story and I've read the book
I knew the game with just one look
What you're all about (What you're all about)
There can be no doubt
You know I've got someone, it's plain to see
But even still you're trying to talk to me
Like you didn't know (Like you didn't know)
Boy, it's time to go
I told you the scenario
Made it crystal clear
Spelled it out from A to Z
Which part of no don't you hear

(chorus)

I told you I'm already taken
That's a move, I won't be making
I made a vow, I'll never break it now
It's a matter of facts that
I don't get down like that
You know I got a one and only
And you don't really even know me
Byt every day you try to phone me
And I'll never call back cause
I don't get down like that

(second verse)

Ohh yeah (Yeah)
At the movies with my girls and me
Made a move, thought I didn't see
Then you look surprised
Don't you even try
Tried to call and you paged me too
I think I'm getting kind of tired of you
And the same old line
Do you think I'm blind

Don't know what I'm all about
But boy you best believe
I don't trade and I never stray
Sin's not my way to deceive, ohh

(chorus)

I told you I'm already taken
That's a move, I won't be making (I won't make that move)
I made a vow, I'll never break it
It's a matter of facts that
I don't get down like that
You know I got a one and only
And you don't really even know me
But every day you try to phone me
And I'll never call back cause
I don't get down like that

(third verse)

Yeahhh
What you're all about
There can be no doubt
Say it will be alright
It's just between me and you (It's just between me and you)
But creeping around on the low low
Is one thing I'll never do
Am I getting through, ohh ohhh

(chorus part two)

Don't wanna play all the games you play
You make me laugh with the things you say
Don't waste your time, you should walk away
Save it for another fool, another day

I told you I'm already taken
That's a move, I won't be making
I made a vow, I'll never break it
It's a matter of facts that
I don't get down like that (Down like that)
You know I got a one and only
And you don't really even know me (You don't even know me)
But every day you try to phone me
And I'll never call back cause
I don't get down like that (Thaaat)

Don't wanna play all the games you play
You make me laugh with the things you say
Don't waste your time, you should walk away (I made a pact)

Save it for another fool, another day (I don't get down like that)

You know I got a one and only
And you don't really even know me (You don't really even know me)
But every day you try to phone me
And I'll never call back cause
I don't get down like that
