Temptation frustration your love bleeds into hate

You fed me this apple how bittersweet the taste

I wonder if I'll breath again

Then I inhale

Suddenly I vaporize you

Choking on your lies spitting out truth

Open up your eyes to see that I'm not standing here

Suddenly I vaporize you

Wear you like a scar 'till my skin's new

Open up your eyes to see that you have disappeared

So I vaporize you

I felt you cut through me

Like bullets breaking flesh

You want my reaction

For you there's nothing left

I wonder if I'll breath again

Then I inhale

Suddenly I vaporize you

Choking on your lies spitting out truth

Open up your eyes to see that I'm not standing here

Suddenly I vaporize you

Wear you like a scar 'till my skin's new
Open up your eyes to see that you have disappeared
So I vaporize you
Tonight we'll drink it down
A bottle full of promises you made
And then we'll sink and drown right to the bottom
This is where it ends (3x
This is where we end
Suddenly I vaporize you
Choking on your lies spitting out truth
Open up your eyes to see that I'm not standing here
Suddenly I vaporize you
Wear you like a scar 'till my skin's new
Open up your eyes to see that you have disappeared
So I vaporize you
