Overwhelming waiting
Looking at the door
Rattle of the key
Steps on the floor

I've ridden for a fall
Tomorrow I will die
The hangman calls my name
From the other side

I won't keep you waiting mephisto
Tomorrow is my time and I will go with you

Deadly overstatement
I'll make a mortal day
Capital punishment
Smelling the grave
But I don't rue my life now
Feeling the rage
That I entomb in my mind
There is not grace
You know this is my big time
Feeling the breathe
My last breath man,

What's going on
What can I deplore
Thrown into the shadow
I will fear no more
