Locked down and alienated, confused and complicated
Now it seems you still have my heart Shot down and unaccepted Sometimes i get the feeling everything is tearing out my heart

But im scared of what ill find
The search for answers just keeps going nowhere
All i know is that its killing me inside
As i raise this final bottle to the sky

Here's to promises that die
Here's to all the nights we said our last goodbyes
As we burned another day off all our lives
Here's to memories that will fade, like the photographs
that scream of better days
Its all weighing on my mind

Knocked down and devastated refused and understated now I see how you stole my heart now I'm forced to breathe without you sometimes I get the feeling everything is tearing us apart

But im scared of what ill find
The search for answers just keeps going nowhere
All i know is that its killing me inside
As i raise this final bottle to the sky

Here's to promises that die
Here's to all the nights we said our last goodbyes
As we burned another day off all our lives
Here's to memories that will fade, like the photographs
that scream of better days
Its all weighing on my mind

But im scared of what ill find
The search for answers just keeps going nowhere
All i know is that its killing me inside
As i raise this final bottle to the sky

Here's to promises that die
Here's to all the nights we said our last goodbyes
As we burned another day off all our lives
Here's to memories that will fade, like the photographs
that scream of better days
Its all weighing on my mind, weighing on my mind (my mind)
Weighing on my mind
