Sit down and take a listen a story that's my confession of how you came into my life I wasn't sure if I was ready,
I didn't think you were here already six weeks before the estimated time, Mom and I were holding hands we didn't think about the demands, with a tap on my right shoulder, I looked up and felt so much older, you came along, and I was there, I never felt so happy through, all the hardship, and despair I never felt so happy my baby boy, promise to never make you unhappy you're my best friend, because you make me happy, and all the times that I screwed up, and lost my temper i hope you haven't given up, we're gonna make up for lost time to spend some time together who says it's now or never I wanna show the world you're here, you're here and as you and I walk holding hands, we didn't think about the demands having fun and acting crazy, I love you my bouncing baby you came along and I was there, I never felt so happy throughout the hardship and despair, I never felt so happy my baby boy, you're my best friend, because you make me happy as you, and I walked holding hands, we didn't think about the demands having fun and acting crazy, i love you my bouncing baby boy, i love you my bouncing baby boy, i love you my bouncing baby boy, i love you my bouncing baby boy, sleep tight my bouncing baby boy.
