well i think the time has come to tell you how i feel about everything thats been inside my mind since the day we crossed the line into his real life fantasy cause i poured my heart into the last 3 years of wondering what i should do should i cash the check and trade in what i though i knew your promises don't help to make it easier

cause the last thing that i need is somebody like you to push me around and tell me what to do i know theres a time and place where you can call the shots but it's not here

cause i poured my heart into the last 3 years of wondering what I should do should I cash the check and trade in what I thought I knew your promises don't help to make it easier

Because the last thing that I need is somebody like you to push me around and tell me what to do I know theres a time and place where you can call the shots
but it's not here

Cause I think this whole life is just overrated this whole life is too complicated this whole life is just overrated now this whole life is just overrated

I don't remember what you said to me that night so I just signed the dotted line

Cause now I find out this whole life is just overrated
this whole life is too complicated
this whole life is just overrated now
