So, where the hell I go and what do I adore
I just can't foresee what there is to come
The former life I lived has made me find a soul
This endless dream I'm in, my heart is cold as stone

I know I still got some things to do
I know I still got something to lose

I am a stranger to the world, I live in shades
I have to leave the world, forget the sacred place
The warm, safe place you showed me belongs to someone else
I'll take my tears to grave, the world of mine is dead

I STARE THROUGH THE DREAM
THROUGH MY EYES CAN'T SEE
ECHOES IN MY MIND
WILL GUIDE THE LAST RIDE
