I can be the richest woman on earth
But let me tell You
It's not better than You, oh
That's not better than you
And I can have the finest things in life
But let me tell You
It's not better than You,
It's not better than You, oh

I can be sitting on top of the world
Draped in diamonds and pearls
But that's not better, that's not better than You,
Not better than You
I can even travel from place to place
Where everybody loves my face
But that's not better, that's not better
But that's not better, that's not better than You
If I'm under, Lord bring me over
I wanna be nearer, closer to You
You are light and You are truth
There's nothing better, better than You

I can be the most prestigious person in the world
Let me tell You
That's not better than You
That's not better than You
And I can have houses or land, almost anything
But let me tell You
It's not better than You!

I can be sitting on top of the world
Draped in diamonds and pearls
But that's not better, that's not better than You,
That's not better than You
I can even travel from place to place
Where everybody loves my face
But that's not better, that's not better than You
If I'm under, Lord bring me over
I wanna be nearer, closer to You
You are light and You are truth
There's nothing better, better than You

If I'm under, Lord bring me over
I wanna be nearer, closer to You
You are light and You are truth
There's nothing better, better than You

There is nothing, nothing better
There is nothing, nothing better
There is nothing, nothing better
Better than You
There is nothing, nothing better
There is nothing, nothing better
There is nothing, nothing better
Better than You

If I'm under, Lord bring me over
I wanna be nearer, closer to You
You are light and You are truth
There's nothing better, better than You
