My world is upside down
Everything is starting to fade out
I dream of living in brighter days
And not feeling so fucking far away

My world is upside down
All I can do is wait this out
With my heart in my mouth
I guess I'll have to wait this out

I guess I'll have to wait it out

Take me out tonight
I feel like losing my fucking mind
Please take me out tonight
I don't need to see beauty
I just need to feel alive

I thought this was over
That's what you used to say
I thought this was over too
I never thought you could bring sorrow my way

Trying to figure out
How we got this far
I think I'd rather just forget
I think I'd rather just

Forgive and forget me
And I'll forget us
Can we forget the way we were?

Please forget me
And I'll forget us
Can we forget the way we were?
