"Heroes And Losers"

Imagine the leaving of you behind
Like some ebbing of tide bringing you along for the ride
And if your dreams should find you that day
Would you go? Would you stay?

Oh oh oh,
Dreams can't follow you
You take them and go! Get up and go!
Make them breathe!
Don't be fooled
Cause nothing can stop you now

When were things so ever black and white?
Are we heroes everyday or losers in every action?
Grab a hold of everything you want
Are you ready? Are you ready?

Oh oh oh, oh oh oh,
Dreams can't follow you
You take them and go! Get up and go!
Make them breathe!
Don't be fooled
Cause nothing can stop you now

Dreams can't follow you
You take them and go! Get up and go!
Make them breathe!
Don't be fooled
Cause nothing can stop you now

Oh oh oh (oh oh oh)
