The day I met you girl,
I was pure hearted and I believed in our true love.
It was just simple love.
I was dreaming of you took advantage of my heart.
My soul feels empty now.
My brain is still full of fire and our hearts will never meet again.

Hate & explosions, uncontrolled violence, bloody tears
I'm running amok.

Love was just a game and I'll never be the same.
Love the way we lived and how you made it die.
In my heart, in my heart there's a burnin' fire.
In my heart, in my heart I'm runnin' amok.

Now I'm on my way to get you girl.
But my mission is not love.
The will, the saw and I - your nightmare comes alive.
The voices told me what to do.

Love was just a game and I'll never be the same.
Now I wanna taste the sweetness of your tears.
In my heart, in my heart is a burnin' fire.
In my heart, in my heart I'm runnin' amok.

In my heart, in my heart is a burnin' fire.
In my heart, in my heart I'm runnin' amok. (3x
