What make us think this time will be any different?
Blind faith and vanity maybe.

You believe it's the fault of the chosen ones.
I believe it's punishment.
You still thrust'em 'cause you don't know better.
I know the end is the end.

What make us think this time will be any different?
Blind faith and vanity maybe.

There's no tiny, there's no tiny, there's no tiny,
no tiny glimmer, tiny glimmer,
no tiny glimmer of hope, glimmer of hope.

There's so much hope on this record.
It's good for your digestion.

Armageddon, armageddon

Well, ev'ry carpet got its time - armageddon.
Well, ev'ry plant got its time - armageddon.
Well, ev'ry animal got its time - armageddon.
Well, ev'ry one of us got its time - armageddon.
Well, ev'ry planet got its time - armageddon.
And ev'ry song got its time - armageddon.
