This table has taken a turn for the worst rock bottom and over the edge well it's not like it hurts that much anyways upside down and inside out when i leave here i'm going alone
well it's not like it hurts that much anyways

Attention, Attention
may i have all you're eyes and ears to the front of the room, if only (If only) if only for one second
oh, oh
did i mention when i see you it stings like hell to the fact that we could have something that will never happen

this balance has weighed out our hearts desire i'm trying to make it alone
well it's not like it hurts that much anyways
well i'm dying, i'm dying to touch well it's not like it hurts that much anyways

to the front of the room, if only (If only)
if only for one second
oh, oh
to the fact that we could have something, something if only, if only for one second (one second...) will you hear what i have to say oh, oh did i mention when i see you it stings like hell (Stings like hell!)

do you hear what i have to (say)(do you hear what i have to say)

Attention, attention

Attention, attention
