Walk the streets at night
Looking for someone
Looking for someone
You'll never find

Whoa, darling, you might as well forget him
For he's gone, he's said his last goodbye

I wish you had listened when you first met him
I tried to make you realize
He didn't feel the same for you
But still you thought he was your guy

Now you know the pain
Oh, that love can bring
For he's gone, you might as well forget him

Now you know the pain
Oh, that love can bring
For he's gone, you might as well forget him

Walk the streets at night
Looking for someone
Looking for someone
You'll never find

Whoa, darling, you might as well forget him
For he's gone, he's said his last goodbye

For he's gone, whoa, you might as well forget him
He's said his last goodbye, whoa, he's gone
