Say what you want to say.
I heard the explosions in the sky.
It's only going to be a matter of time.

If your eyes could kill I'd be the first to know.
So long, farewell and goodbye.
After all these winters aren't so cold.
If my eyes could kill you'd be the first to know.

Can't really sleep though I can't say I really tried.

I wake up with blood on my hands.
Why is your voice still haunting me?
Can't even try to explain why.
We are better off alone,
Together and alone

If your eyes could kill I'd be the first to know.
So long, farewell and goodbye.
We are better off alone,
Together and alone
