Even as we speak my head,

My hands, my knees they still all shake.
When am I gonna kick this headache?
I need to give myself more space,
You need to lose control.

I lie awake trembling in my sleep,
These exhausted feet could only carry you down.
Down.
Further down, down
Until there's no escape.

You remember balling yourself up on the side of the
Couch.
You can't go, you can't leave me here alone tonight.

I'm exhausted, you're exhausted,
We are both due to expire.

I lie awake trembling in my sleep,
These exhausted thoughts,
Waking dead couples fresh from defeat.
You remember balling yourself up on the side of the Couch.
You can't go,
You can't leave me here alone tonight.
I'm exhausted,
You're exhausted, we are both soon to expire
