This is a nightmare in my head

Your eyes never show more than just affection
They led to believe that you love me for nothing
... look at myself in a mirror
All I can see is a ghost
All I can see is a ghost

... will guide you out the door
And we will burn this one chance to the ground
One chance to show you real life
One chance to show you real life

I've always been the false in the end
And I will stand to watch you everytime
And now I'm standing in this calm windtailed breeze
Waiting for you to fall into my arms

Take me away from you
I...
I have been waiting but this is not legal

I'm choking in my own dreams
And there is no one to save me
I'm choking in my own dreams
And there is no one to save me

Your eyes never show more than just affection
They led to believe that you love me for nothing
