If we try hard enough I'm sure we could forget it Cause this black-hearted wedding's enough to start a panic

We were clean for three days when you were running down the block

11 minutes sober now we're counting down the clock
And Donnie says you're the reason we are here
And we all know that what Donnie says is true
So go to bed this life is not a shameless waste
And we all know that's what it is to you goodnight

We will overcome every night to the sound of the kick drum

We've got it figured out every night to the sound of the breakdown

We can stand the street every night to the sound of the blast-beat

I feel like my worn hands are empty waiting for God's new plans

Please darling won't you lead the way
My world is flipped now I have gone astray
Now it falls apart every night to the sight of the dim stars

[Please don't leave me will you lead the way]

[in background]

Last time we returned to our old ways
What makes you think we'll change
PlayRadio taking the sound waves
The sound waves

I take it slow because I have time
Back to the days when you were mine
Back to this faulty relationship
Back to the days when we both fit [x2]

Is this it or could we still compliment

Eachother like colors in harmony that make Eachother look brighter like we did in the old days
Like we did in the old days
